The thing even those who start well wonder about is whether they will finish well. It s a journey without guarantees. It s a journey full of uncertainties. Are there guidelines that if followed could greatly increase your chances of finishing well? Do we have rules of engagement for the journey that if observed would get you to the grand finish? Thankfully we have them. Finishing Strong distills those guidelines from Scripture. Borrowing from the life of Apostle Paul, a key biblical figure that changed cause at his prime and finished well, the book maps a framework for finishing well. It builds hope in its reader that they too can finish strong. Building on the philosophy that all is well that ends well, the author, with vivid everyday examples builds the reader s hope that all have the capacity to finish well. Imagine sowing seeds that would outlive you and greatly enrich posterity. Now, the truth that it s not how you start the race but how you finish that matters, must ring clear in your mind. Designed for those who wish to start, run the race, and earn the prize, Finishing Strong draws from the timeless principles of Scripture and expounds five important pillars for a race well run. Here are the five principles: 1.Finishing Strong Faith To win the race, cultivate faith. The depth of your conviction is your fuel. 2.Finishing Strong Foundation To win the race, lay a foundation....
