But they should bear in mind that nearly the whole of the disorders to which this noble animal is liable, derive their origin from a Cold. The causes of Colds are various, but the most usual one is riding the horse until he is hot, and then suffering him to stand still exposed to the cold air; removing him from a hot stable to a cold one: if the horse has been high-fed, and clothed, the cold contracted in this manner often proves very violent; and this is the reason why horses often catch a severe cold on their first coming out of the dealers hands: neglecting to rub him properly down, and to rub the sweat carefully off when he comes in from a journey; and I have known grievous disorders brought on by removing horses into a new stable before the walls and plastering were dry. Workmen are often in fault for not leaving air-holes above; as when a horse comes into a new stable, and gathers heat, it will cause the walls and plastering to sweat very much, especially if there are no air-holes left. Many a horse has lost his eyes, and some their lives, by being put into new stables before they were dry. Symptoms. - When a horse has caught a cold, a cough will follow,...
