In the absence of President Newell, Mr. John Reilly, one of the Governors, presided. The meeting was called to order at 3.04 P. M. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The President s address, written previous to his departure for Europe, was read by Mr. Reilly. President Newell s Address. The year that has just elapsed may well be spoken of as the Medal year of our Society. Due to this country s ever-increasing interest in medallic art and to the many important historical events which have marked the year 1919, our Society has never before been so active in this great field of numismatics. Medals to commemorate the Peace Treaty of Versailles, the celebration of our National Day - the Fourth of July - by the most important nations of the world,...
