Come, Children dear, Oh/pray give ear, And early seek for heaven; Broad is the road that leads from God--Oh! ask, and be forgiven. Bless d are the dead who die in Him--Heav n bears no earthly ill; All in that land, before him stand, And drink of bliss their fill. Come, then, while youth bedecks your hearts, Shun sin and folly s way, And seek the road that leads to God--Unto him daily pray. Oh! may we always bear in mind Our days are like a tale; That from the grave no time can save, Nor silent time prevail. THE BONNIE LASS O AUCHINBLAE! Where winding Luther gently fa s, An Conveth spreads her glowing vale, There mony a bonnie flow ret blaws. An sheds its sweetness o er the dale; Or where the lingering echoes swell, On...
