C It is indeed admitted, that we frequently describe Regeneration as the commencement of the Christian life; but we cannot allow that the term itself, or its synonyms, is applied, either in Scripture or by the Church of England, to the commencement only of the Christian life. Nor do we admit that Regeneration in its very nature is incapable of repetition, except on the consideration of its being a continued act, or an act continually repeated. If the same power which renewed the soul at first were withdrawn, the effect would no more continue, than natural life would continue, were the power that first gave life withdrawn. We can no more live spiritually without God, than we can live naturally without Him. The Homily for Whitsunday very wisely states this matter: when speaking of the Holy...
