CHAPTER IV ETHICS AND THE STUDENT NURSE Continued There is always a best way of doing everything, if it be to boil an egg. Manners are the happy way of doing things.-- Emerson. Personality, Skill and education avail little if one's Success, and personality is not pleasing. It is scarcelyappiness worth while for a woman to begin training if her personality is positively unpleasant. Every pupil does well to study herself with a view to improvement in every possible way during the three years in which she is an undergraduate. Why do we say of certain people that their personality is attractive? Is it because they are beautiful to look at? No, most assuredly not. At the moment, I think of a nurse who was most popular with her patients, the doctors, and all her associates. To strangers she was plain...
