Not illustrated. 1910 Excerpt: .the principal minor personal injuries being due to broken glass. In the bottling department of the Schaefer Brewing Company, nearly opposite the New York Central power house, all the ordinary glass windows were blown out, some of them with their frames also. The lower floor was equipped with metal window frames and wired glass, and none of the latter was wrecked. One light in the door was severely shattered but held all its glass intact. Commenting on this circumstance, Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Dean of the New York Homeopathic Medical College and Flower Hospital, whose surgical skill was in demand after the explosion had occurred, said: --I believe that every public vehicle should have glass of this pattern, or glass protected by wire netting. I operated on Monday from nine o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon and a good many hours since that day. Most of my work consisted of picking fragments of broken glass from human flesh and repairing damages resulting from broken glass. I removed an eye from one poor victim and another lost both eyes. Several suffered minor injuries of the eye, but all of them had serious scalp and face wounds due to the same cause. I am determined to do what I can to educate the profession and the public of the importance of this subject. I saw eighteen or twenty cases from this accident; within six months I had two young women as patients...
