Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: .in the United States which care for infants exclusively. There are probably to-day in the United States facilities for caring for at least 3,500 children, in institutions varying in size from the Hebrew Orphan Asylum in New York, which has accommodations for 1,100 children, to the newly created ones like th- Home for Hebrew Orphans in Philadelphia, which houses about 50. I must apologize for having burdened you with these figures, and yet the subject of the future development of the care of the orphan.child-cannot be adequately con sidered without at least some presentation of the work that has been done in the past. One would probably need to go far and wide to find the individual who could, with any degree of truthfulness, criticize or find fault with the manner in which the Jewish Orphan Asylums in the United States have been conducted. It may...

Reviews

This book is really gripping and fascinating. Of course, it is actually play, nonetheless an interesting and amazing literature. You will not feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogs are for about if you request me).

-- Delbert Gleason

These kinds of book is every thing and helped me hunting forward plus more. It is probably the most remarkable book we have read through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
